Celebrate Children's Spiritual Milestones

POWERSOURCE

ASK GOD:

1. To help you nurture your children's developing faith.
2. To assure your children that he's with them as they grow.
3. To remind you to make your children's faith milestones special and memorable.

Marking children's physical "firsts"—from first steps to first words—is an exciting and cherished part of parenting. Even more important and worthy of celebration are spiritual firsts, or faith milestones.

These rites help children know that they're growing up as Christians and continually reconnecting to their faith family. Milestones also allow churches and parents to partner together to raise up lifelong followers of Jesus.

Spiritual occasions that warrant family celebrations include:

Baptism or Dedication Children are a gift from God, so we "give" them back by committing their lives to God. By witnessing a baptism or dedication, fellow church members agree to partner with parents to help raise children as Christians.

Receiving a First Bible When children receive God's Word, it's like their very own special love letter from God. He wants us to read the Bible and hold it in our hearts so we can live it out. Making a big deal out of getting a new Bible shows kids how important the book is to our faith and its growth.

Confirmation or Other Transitions to the Preteen Years Leaving behind elementary school symbolizes that preteens are beginning to "own" their faith. During their spiritual journey, they'll decide whether to draw closer to God or reject him. Thankfully, God is always there—for kids and parents, guiding us throughout our faith walk.

Your Family's Faith Journey

TEACHABLE MOMENTS

Come to Jesus

Place a 50-foot rope or hose in a circle around a chair. Choose one family member to be the “disciple,” and have him or her stand inside the circle. Everyone else, stand outside the circle.

Say: Some children wanted to see Jesus. But Jesus' friends, the disciples, didn't want the kids to bother him. Imagine Jesus is inside this circle and you want to reach him. When I say “go,” lift the rope and try to sneak under it. The disciple will try to touch you before you get through. If you're tagged, sit down. You can be freed when someone else touches you. When you reach the chair, run back outside the circle. Ready? Go!

Take turns being the disciple. Then ask: What was easy or hard about this? How did it feel when someone helped you get to “Jesus”?

Read Mark 10:14. Say: Jesus wants us to come to him. Ask: How can we do that? Say: We can go to church, read the Bible, sing, and pray to Jesus. He's always there for us!

At-home faith talks are vital for nurturing children spiritually. In Shift (Group), Brian Haynes offers these guidelines for family times with Jesus:

Faith talks should occur regularly and be age-appropriate. Each week, set aside time to focus on biblical truth in a relational way.

Faith talks should focus on God's Word. Read the Bible together, celebrate it, and apply it to all aspects of your daily lives.

Faith talks don't have to be difficult or formal. Make them fun! For example, go outside on a hot day and compare standing in the sun and shade.

Then read and discuss Psalm 121:5-6.

Faith talks shouldn't depend on children's choices or attitudes. God instructs parents to be intentional about leading their kids spiritually.

Celebrate New Life After seeing a baptism, talk to your children about their own baptisms—or their desire to be baptized. Tell them Jesus washes away our sins. As a family, make handmade cards for newly baptized people.

God's Relevant Word Show children how the Bible applies to their lives. Talk about biblical heroes and how they both stumble and grow in faith. Tie Bible verses into kids' interests, from music and poetry to travel and adventure.

Lifelong Learners Preteens often feel as if they've outgrown Sunday school. Provide age-appropriate Bibles and devotionals for older kids who are forming their identity in Jesus. Help them anticipate the future, and assure them that Jesus is always with them as they grow.

Family Timelines Tape a long piece of paper to a wall. Together, create a timeline of your family's journey with Jesus using words, drawings, and Bible verses. Add marriages, birthdays, and milestones such as when a child started preschool or you moved. Include fun memories as well as challenges that affected everyone. Then discuss: “What are our best memories? What difficult events have we faced? How did those make us closer to each other and to Jesus? How have we seen God's faithfulness? What dreams do we have as a family?”

Special Sheep Draw a sheep shape on paper. Set out cotton balls and glue sticks. Have family members take turns holding up cotton balls and saying why each person is special. Then dip the cotton in glue and stick it on the sheep. Continue until you have a fluffy reminder that you are all God's special sheep. Read Luke 15:3-7 and say Jesus is a good Shepherd who loves us, his sheep.

God's Path On a map of your hometown or neighborhood, mark important spots such as your home, school, church, friends' houses, and more. Highlight the roads your family uses most often. Read aloud Psalm 139:1-3. Say: “God always knows where we are, what we're doing, and where we're going. He has big plans for us as we grow and get to know him better. Jesus loves us and will always be with us.” With a red marker, draw a large heart around all the sites you've highlighted. Display the map as a reminder of God's promises.

“Train yourself to be godly. For...godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.”
—1 Timothy 4:7-8, NIV

MEDIA MADNESS

MOVIE

Title: Diary of a Wimpy Kid: The Long Haul

Genre: Comedy, family

Rating: Not yet rated

Cast: Jason Drucker, Charlie Wright, Alicia Silverstone, Tom Everett Scott

Synopsis: Hoping to attend a gamer convention, Greg talks his family into traveling to his great-grandmother's 90th birthday party. Crazy road-trip antics result. This is the fourth "Wimpy Kid" movie but the first in five years, so the cast is all new.

Our Take: Young fans of the popular book series will enjoy seeing the Heffley family in action. The film lends itself to discussions about decision-making, family unity and conflict, and how much control kids should (and do) have over their lives.

BOOK

Title: Stef Soto, Taco Queen

Author: Jennifer Torres

Synopsis: Middle-schooler Estefania "Stef" Soto is embarrassed by her Mexican-American family's food truck and tired of the teasing she endures because of it. When the business is threatened, however, she fervently defends it—and also learns to embrace her cultural identity.

Our Take: This heartwarming realistic fiction, geared toward grades 3 through 6, explores conflicting loyalties between family and friends. Young readers will consider the role of cultural heritage and the importance of tradition. They'll benefit from seeing how Stef finds her voice amid conflicts and challenges.

CULTURE & TRENDS

New Zoos Now that the Ringling Bros. circus has disbanded and SeaWorld is phasing out its orca shows, zoos are the next animal-based attraction facing changes. A reported new "unzoo" approach involves taking people to the animals and providing more space for animals to roam, often above visitors' heads. (various sources)

Happy Campers If you're not yet comfortable sending your children to summer camp—or just want to share in the fun—check out the family sessions being offered by many groups. It's a popular strategy for getting away together without worrying about meals or hotels. (empowher.com)

QUICK STATS

Faked Out Fewer than 45% of U.S. kids ages 10 to 18 said they could accurately tell which stories in their social-media feeds were fake. Nearly one-third said they've shared fake news before realizing it. (Common Sense Media)

Movie Violence PG-13 movies have 23% more gun violence than R-rated movies do. (Pediatrics)

Step It Up Pokémon Go players walk an estimated 2,000 extra steps daily, compared to people who don't play the game. (healthday.com)

Games, Sites & Apps

Legend of Zelda: Breath of the Wild

This new title from the acclaimed series is for the new Nintendo Switch console. For players, Hyrule is an open world waiting to be explored. They must battle enemies, hunt wild beasts, and gather food and equipment for the journey. Rated E10+

[Child Dedication

Mother's Day Sunday, May 14

The scriptures say, "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

As Christian parents, Child Dedication is an opportunity to publicly dedicate your child to the purpose God has for them in the future. During dedication, you will promise to raise your child with love, discipline and Biblical instruction. You commit to living a life of Christian example for your child.

We want you to know, you are not alone in this commitment. The congregation of North Parkersburg Baptist will be there to support you through Christian example, acts of service, reinforcing Biblical instruction and loving your child as Christ loves us.

The staff of North Parkersburg Baptist Church will partner with you on this journey. Our pastors and staff are committed to supporting you with Biblical teaching, discipleship and love as we help you train your child in the way he should go. It is our prayer that God will strengthen you and bless you on your journey to raise beautiful young men and women for Christ's purpose. Contact Terri Wagner for more information. 304-428-3293

E2 May News

Hello E2 Parents! We hope and pray that you have had a great month of April. Last month was packed with so many great moments. We are finishing up our teaching series entitled "My Generation" which highlighted several of our high school students participating through worship, song, and teaching. We finished up the month of April with our E2 Student Lock-In. This was an incredible event as we saw 100 students pack the church gym for a night of fun.

We are so excited for what's ahead in the month of May as we begin to head into the summer.

Days to Mark on the Calendar

5/6,5/13 - Mother's Day Flower Sale
5/10 – E2 Tween Celebration Night
5/14 – No Teen E2 (Mother's Day)
5/28 – Graduation Sunday
6/4 – Survivor Night

MOTHERS DAY

We will not be having any E2 Teen Pm Service on Sunday night May 14th in honor of Mother's Day. We like to take this day to honor all the mom's in our lives by allowing extra time to spend with family.

E2 TWEEN CELEBRATION NIGHT

It's hard to believe that the Awana and Tween programming season is almost over. The last night for E2 Tween is Wednesday night May 10th. During this time, we will have a special celebration for our Tween students and leaders on floor one. We will be taking a couple weeks off from PM Tween programming after this date. We will still be having our normal Tween programming every Sunday morning at 9:30am throughout the month of May. We will be inviting back all our Tweens to participate in our weekly E2 Sunday Night service beginning on Sunday Night June 4th.

GRADUATION SUNDAY

On Sunday May 28th we will be honoring and celebrating our E2 graduates with two special occasions. The first will be special reception held in the chapel following the second morning service. Graduates and families are invited for a time of fellowship and food as we celebrate together. That night we will be having a special graduation party E2 style where all our 9th – 12th grade students will be participating in a formal party in honor of our graduating class. During this party there will be dancing, games, and food on floor one. Students are encouraged to dress up and bring a friend.

Survivor Night

On Sunday Night June 4th we will be having our second annual Survivor Night. This year we are making it a special E2 Family event where we are inviting students and their parents to compete together and against each other for a chance to win great prizes and ultimately the grand prize which is a free trip to Summer Camp. More details for this event will be coming soon.

If you enjoy this newsletter and would like to be more informed on a weekly basis on what's going on in E2 then we encourage you to join our weekly email list. Signing up is easy. Just send an email to adammyers@northpbc.org or timcinnamon@northpbc.org with the subject line stating Sign Me Up.

It's such an honor and a privilege to be able to serve your family. We believe our students are not just the church of tomorrow but the church of today. Thank you for letting us equip and encourage your students as we seek to see every student experience life change through Jesus Christ.

E2 Mother's Day Plant Sale

Saturdays, May 6th and 13th
8:30AM-3:00PM
